Scenario 4: We don't have the article online or in print, but you can order it using Interlibrary Loan.

Step 1: Click the "Find it @ Emory" button.
Step 2: Since there's no online availability, click the "GO" button next to discoverE.

Scenario 4: We don't have the article online or in print, but you can order it using Interlibrary Loan.
Step 3: If you get Zero results in discoverE ...

Scenario 4: We don’t have the article online or in print, but you can order it using Interlibrary Loan.
Step 4: ... go back to the Find it @ Emory box. This time choose "Request document via ILLiad"
Step 5: Log in to ILLiad with your Emory net ID and password. If you've never used Interlibrary loan before, you'll have to fill out a short form.

Scenario 4: We don't have the article online or in print, but you can order it using Interlibrary Loan.
Step 6: In ILLiad, a form should open, prepopulated with the article information so you can request it.

If that doesn't happen, you can click "Create New Requests / Copy of Article" and fill in the required fields.

Scenario 4: We don't have the article online or in print, but you can order it using Interlibrary Loan.